

IDAHO STOCKMEN CAUGHT BY POLICE

J. F. Young and A. J. Comer Locked Up on Request of Boise Authorities.

J. F. Young and A. J. Comer, stockmen of Boise, Ida., are under arrest at police headquarters, charged with numerous felonies and of obtaining money under false pretenses in various cities of Idaho. According to advice from Chief of Police T. B. Martin of Boise, Young and Comer are bad characters, who can be connected with several crimes throughout his state, where they have operated successfully for more than a year.

Mayor Pence of Boise, who is in Salt Lake on business, called on Chief of Detectives George Sheets last night when he learned of the arrest of Young and Comer. Outside of knowing that they were badly wanted in Boise, he was not familiar with recent charges against them by the police department of his city.

Comer was arrested Tuesday night by Detectives George Sheets and Ed. Janney, only a few hours after the Salt Lake police had been furnished descriptions by Boise authorities. Knowing that Young would leave the city if he learned that his pal, Comer, was under arrest, the capture was kept a secret. Members of the entire detective department have been on the trail of Young since the capture of Comer, and last night he was trapped almost on the outskirts of the city by Detective Earl Ripley.

Mrs. Edna Young, wife of the alleged forger and embezzler, was located near an apothecary's at Second South and Main streets last night by Detectives Earl Ripley, Harry Curran, H. F. Wilson and Robert Golding. It appears that she surprised the presence of the detectives. All tried to shadow her. Suddenly they lost track of her, and simultaneously Detective Ripley became lost to other detectives. Zigzagging through various streets and alleys, with the detective close at her heels, she walked to Sixth South and Third East streets, where she was joined by her husband, J. F. Young. Detective Ripley followed them to Seventh South and Fourth East streets, where he placed Young under arrest. The latter entered protests that there had been a mistake. Detective Ripley drew a revolver and marched Young ahead of him until he could get into communication with the police.

Young is alleged to have presented a check on a Boise bank bearing his signature for $24 in one of the houses of vice at the stockade, and later a check for a similar amount at the saloon of Reuben M. Tuttle, 28 West Second South street. A week ago he underwent an investigation before Chief of Detectives George Sheets, in which he seemed to give a satisfactory explanation that there was something wrong with his checking account at the Boise National bank.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar proof vault of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32 Up, Main street, $2.00 per year and upwards.

Representative Martin of Colorado Discusses Subject of Friar Lands in the Philippines.

Washington, March 25.—"The former head of the sugar trust is now at the head of the department of justice, and under this administration the Philippines are being exploited," declared Representative Martin of Colorado, in addressing the House today on the subject of the friar lands of the Philippines.

Mr. Martin, referring to his request for an investigation into the acts of the attorney general, which was referred to the committee on rules, said a mere inquiry into the reasons of the attorney general had rendered his opinion that there was no limitation in the case of corporations purchasing sugar lands in the islands.

If there was to be no limitation in the amount of land owned by corporations in the Philippines, Mr. Martin said, Congress should amend the law and not permit its amendment by means of an opinion by the attorney general.

The chief beneficiary of free trade between the United States and the Philippines, he declared, was the sugar trust.

Mr. Martin said if notice were not taken of these matters the sugar trust would be placed in court at some future date that the silence of Congress was acquiescence.

BURGLARS CAPTURED AFTER LOOTING HOUSE

Policeman Lands Pair at End of Trail of Stolen Silverware.

Caught in the act of removing clothing and silverware from the residence of Mrs. Ann Cramer, 657 West First South street, early last night, James Hayman and Patrick Milligan were arrested, after a long chase by Patrolman B. D. Seigfus. They entered the residence while Mrs. Cramer was up-town shopping, and were still at work ransacking drawers of sideboards and bureaus when she returned.

With a scream, Mrs. Cramer dashed out of her house for assistance. Two policemen came to her help. A block away with the loot, dropping pieces of silverware, watches and clothing, the officer outran them. He finally made them throw up their hands, and they were then taken to police headquarters. Both are charged with burglary. Mrs. Cramer left her home shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had called on friends, and then devoted an hour to shopping. When she unlocked the door to her home at 4 o'clock she heard rushing feet and a grog voice commanded her to stay out or she might get hurt. The burglars had entered through a rear door that they had pried open with a "jimmie."

SUES TO COMPEL REALTY OWNER TO SELL LAND

J. N. Eslinger yesterday filed suit in the district court against Flora A. Phillips to compel her to carry out one part of her written contract in which, he says, she promised to sell an acre and a half of ground in Forest Dale for $1,800. The whole tract was for $35,000, and it was offered to Eslinger on an option to purchase for that amount, with an other clause that one and one-half acres would be sold for $1,800. This part of the bargain appeared to Eslinger, but Mrs. Phillips refused to trade when he offered her the money. Now he wants the court to compel her to deed that property to him, and he will give her the $1,800.

REJECTS SCHOOL BIDS

Nine bids for the eight-room addition to the Longfellow school were opened by the board of education at noon yesterday, and all were rejected because the board members thought the prices too high. Bids will be opened again at 8 o'clock on the night of April 5, at the regular meeting of the board next month. The bids received were as follows: Campbell Building company, $46,520; J. L. Eckert, $13,385; O. Chytrava, $51,400; F. Dryer, $31,885. The board does not want to pay nearly that much money for the eight-room addition.
